FROM: Carl H. Hauber, CAE, Executive Director

SUBJECT: Spine Section Course in Florida

As we discussed, Dr. Schmidek had some comments (to add to those already received from others) about the Florida course. He believes it should be budgeted to break even at a registration of 40-60 people. This is probably a rather sensible position to take.

In the course of our conversation, I was reminded as well that until we get a list of faculty and the honoraria to be paid to them, as well as an expense policy (perhaps something more simple than that used by AANS), a final budget cannot be constructed.

These matters should be brought up at the first opportunity, in your future conversations regarding this meeting.

We will have to get rather seriously into this project when I return.
